Assignment 5.2

Christine is a vibrant soul that lives vicariously through the well-being of others.

Christine was born in 1956, amidst Elvis Presley's rock-and-roll glory days.

Christine's father was a mathematician and school teacher. She recalls, "having your father as a high-school teacher is a bit embarrassing."

Christine worked part-time at a grocery store to pay her way through college, obtaining a Bachelor's of Accounting in 1978 and, soon after, her CPA certification.

Christine is a retired IRS agent who spent much of her career auditing insurance corporations.

Christine has a daughter who works for the American healthcare software company, EPIC Systems.

Christine's main hobbies include dragon boat racing, supporting local refugee communities, and spending time with her cats.
